DEL SOL

Chef David Rodriguez

Although Executive Chef, David Rodriguez, is relatively new to the Maya Del Sol team, he has made a big impact on our organization with his talent, prior training, and passion for the business.

Prior to working at Maya Del Sol, David has worked at many reputable kitchens in Chicago such as the Gibsons Group's Lux Bar (Chef de Cuisine), Standard Market (Executive Chef), and most recently at Hotel Lincoln in Lincoln Park where he was the Executive Chef at The Kennison, J. Parker and Elaine's.

David is ecstatic to have the opportunity use his vast range of industry training to produce the same flavors that he enjoyed growing up.
